

Job Specification - External

Job Title	Fire Maintenance Engineer
Department	Allied Protection
Location	South East England
Reporting to	Line Manager and Contracts Manager
Responsible for	Maintenance and servicing of fire protection and prevention systems

Role Overview:

- To provide maintenance and servicing of fire safety equipment, emergency light and smoke vent systems, in accordance with all current British & European Standards.
- Servicing of maintenance contracts in accordance with company operating procedures, reporting directly to the Contracts Manager

Job Specification

Job Title: Fire Maintenance Engineer

Qualifications and experience:

- Good understanding of the British Standards BS 5839 and BS 5266
- FIA Level 1 &5
- 1+ years of relevant Industry Experience
- 17th Edition Electrical or equivalent desirable
- Social Housing experience desirable

Job Specification - External

Responsibilities:

- Provide day to day planned and reactive maintenance of contracts
- To respond to emergency call-outs and carry out any remedial works as required
- Carry out asset verification
- Install replacement/ additional equipment
- Take part in the on-call rota
- Conduct site surveys as required
- Training of apprentices
- To act at all times in a professional and diligent manor, considering the need of the client

What We Offer:

- Training opportunities
- Company van for business use
- The opportunity to work for a highly successful company in the Fire Protection market
- Company pension scheme

Necessary skills and abilities:

- Able to communicate effectively on all levels
- Able to work under pressure
- Identify and solve problems effectively
- Concise, attention to detail
- Able to manage duties effectively